Have you heard the latest Unitarian miracle?
Someone saw the face of Ralph Waldo Emerson on a tortilla.

How many Unitarians does it take to change a light bulb?
Hard to say....Let's discuss it over coffee.

Why did the Unitarian cross the road?
To support the chicken in its search for its own path.

You must be new around here. I'm the Devil and I will be your tour guide. This is the area where we keep all of the people who have violated the food taboos of their religion.

Who's behind that door?

Those are Catholics, They all ate meat on Fridays.

And who's behind that door?

They're Jewish. They all ate pork.

And who's behind this door?

Unitarians.

Unitarians?!?

Yes, Unitarians who did not partake of tofu, hummus or free-trade coffee.

How many Unitarians does it take to screw in a light bulb?

Twenty.

Seven to form a committee to discuss the ecological implications of compact fluorescent vs. incandescent bulbs,

Six to form a committee to discuss labor practices,

Six on the aesthetics committee to discuss the exact tint and wattage,

And one who goes ahead and does it without consulting anyone else.

Free Kittens!!!

(Girl walks by looks at children and nods) Sign reads: Free kittens, from a good Catholic family.

(Girl walks back by again and looks at sign and nods) Sign reads: Good Methodist Kittens.

Absolutely Free.

(Girl walks by again and stops) Now sign reads: Unitarian Kittens. Free to a good home.

On Monday, weren't you outside the Catholic church with these kittens?

Yes

And on Tuesday, weren't these Methodist Kittens?

Yes

Well, why are they Unitarian Kittens now?

Because today, their eyes are open.

Did you hear about the insomniac dyslexic Unitarian?
She stayed awake all night wondering if there really was a DOG.

How many Unitarians does it take to change a light bulb?
First, let's decide just what we mean by light bulb, and how one might be changed . . .
And let us examine whether it truly acknowledges the dignity and worth of the light bulb to ask it to change.

Did you hear the one about the Unitarian monastery?
All are welcome, but to allow for peaceful contemplation, you must take a vow of silence.
Unless you think of something REALLY good!

How do you know if you're a Unitarian?

Well,

You may be a Unitarian if:

- you think socks are too formal for a Summer service.
- you know at least 5 ways to say "Happy holidays!"
- unleavened bread is part of your Easter Brunch.
- you refer to construction paper as "paper of color."
- the name of your church is longer than your arm.
- you find yourself rewriting a church survey, rather than taking it.
- to explain your personal theology, you have to use interpretive dance.
