SUNDAY PROGRAM SPEAKERS

AUG 7 FREYA SONENSTEIN, JUANIE NOLAND, SARAH BOGDANOVICH, SARAH FISCHER:

“Our Democratic Process”

The Fifth Unitarian Principle calls upon us to use and promote the democratic process in our society at large, which many of us do through active participation in the democratic process and the fight for free and fair elections. But the principle also calls upon us to use and promote the democratic process within the Fellowship itself. In service of that aim, four members will explore sections of our Bylaws, the document by which our Fellowship is governed, and reflect upon the ways those sections promote the ideals of democracy.

AUG 14 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS: “Voices of the Future”

Each year, we award scholarships to our young members in recognition of their meaningful participation in the activities of the Fairhope Unitarian Fellowship. This year’s scholarship recipients present this program to update us on their studies. The gift of a scholarship celebrates and supports the recipients as they transition into lives of independence and their own quests for knowledge. The gifts equally serve the Fellowship by reinforcing our collective responsibility to nurture the young adults who carry our future. Lucy Mercer is a rising Senior with a major in Psychology and minor in Writing at Springhill College. Brisa Ables is in her fourth year of study at The University of Alabama at Birmingham and is pursuing a degree in Social Work with an Honors concentration. Going into her junior year this fall with a major in Biology and a minor in Sustainability and Environmental Studies, Sophia Mercer attends Berea College in Berea, Kentucky; Linda Ables is in her second year of study at University of South Alabama and is pursuing a Bachelors degree in Criminal Justice as well as a minor in Computer Science.

AUG 21 There will be no program on the 21st (while the fellowship hall is being painted).

AUG 28 THOM BOTSFORD: “New Dogma? Four New Critical Books about the UUA.”

Botsford believes that the titles of the books he will present speak for themselves: "The Gadfly Papers: Three Inconvenient Essays by One Pesky Minister" by the Rev. Todd Eklof; "The Gadfly Affair: A 21st Century Heretic's Excommunication from America's Most Liberal Religion," also by Eklof; "A Self-Confessed White Supremacy Culture: The Emergence of an Illiberal Left in Unitarian Universalism" by Anne Larason Schneider," and "Used To Be UU: The Systemic Attack on UU Liberalism" by Frank Casper and Jay Kiskel. In his review, he hopes to capture what these books are trying to say so that members can decide whether they are worth further study. Thom Botsford is a retired department head and professor of English and journalism from Pensacola, where he worked for many years at Pensacola State College. He joined the UU Church of Pensacola in 1991, where he has served as president, Sunday service chair, and lay speaker.

Unitarian Universalist Seven Principles

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote seven Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides, rather than dogma or doctrine. We live out these Principles within a “living tradition” of wisdom and spirituality, drawn from sources as diverse as science, poetry, scripture, and personal experience.

1. 1st Principle: The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
2. 2nd Principle: Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
3. 3rd Principle: Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
4. 4th Principle: A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
5. 5th Principle: The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
6. 6th Principle: The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
7. 7th Principle: Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Sources

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic people which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit;
- Spiritual teachings of Earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

The seven Principles and six Sources of the Unitarian Universalist Association grew out of the grassroots of our communities, were affirmed democratically, and are part of who we are.

Old Business

Painting Walls and Ceiling: Phil Strinste reviewed his email of June 6, 2022 disclosing the four (4) estimates he received for painting the main hall ceiling and walls. An additional cost was included for washing the front face of the building.

1. Pickle's Painting, LLC was the recommended contractor. The Board agreed. The costs are ceiling: $7,500, walls: $2,000, wash: $350.
2. Ceiling and wash will be completed by Pickle's Painting, LLC. Ceiling will be painted white. This amount ($7,850) will need to be approved by the membership and needs to be accomplished ASAP.
3. The walls could be painted by membership. Phil will obtain price for materials only.
4. A motion was made and passed to include #2 and #3 above.
5. The wall color will be determined later, pending input from membership. Carla has volunteered to oversee painting of the walls if directed by the Board.

Handicapped Parking:

No action taken on this item until the fall due to the unavailability of contractors for small projects.

Office Security:

Office locks have been rekeyed. Keys are available to Board Members and others determined by the Board who need access to the office.

3. Carla will use the list of members as needed to complete her duties as Administrator.
4. New members are required to fill out an application and sign the membership book.
5. Rodney and the Membership Committee will recommend procedures for maintaining membership records for old and new members. The procedures will include consolidation and clarification of previous documentation of membership rules.
6. Carl spoke about potential security issues related to member information, including addresses, phone numbers, etc. The resolution of security issues will require further discussion.
7. A motion was made by Sarah to schedule public discussions and a Board work session to finalize member designations. Motion passed.

Committee Reorganization:

1. Sarah proposed a new FUF Committee flow chart. She will distribute the proposed flow chart to the Board in a format like the one published in the 2022 Volunteer Handbook for purposes of comparison.

An additional motion was made to consider Sarah Bogdanovich, along with any other interested candidates, for this position. Motion was passed with two abstentions.
3. Harvey will receive comments from Board Members before the finalized flow chart is distributed to FUF members for their comments and revisions.

Building Usage:

Motion passed instructing Carla to give recommendations to the Board regarding a new usage category.

New Business:

Little Free Pantry:

“The Food Pantry exists because FUF has a culture of generosity.”

So true. This observation was made by Don Joffe, one of the Pantry's Weekly leaders. And he's right. Other weekly leaders are Sarah Bogdanovich, Sheena Patrick and Burt Sonenstein. If you would like to join the team, please contact Irene Wegner. We continue to need the basic food and personal health items you provide, but, please, no more beans!

THANK YOU!

MUSIC COMMITTEE

Request for Summer Music Performers

As music coordinator I would like to thank all who participate in presenting Sunday morning music. As we roll into summer, many of us go on vacation, so there may be some Sundays with no preprogram music. For talkative UUs that should not be an issue. I am on the lookout for those who would like to perform this summer. Either new or seasoned musicians are urged to call me at 251-928-4311 to set a date for you to play.

GROUP ACTIVITIES

MEN'S DISCUSSION GROUP

Convening weekly at the local Kind Cafe –(on Section street across from the police station behind Section Street Pizza), this newly formed open discussion group meets from 9:00 – 10:00. Subjects of discussion are determined in real time by those present.

Submitted by Rodney Hoffman.

NON-FICTION BOOK GROUP

From its start individualism and consensus dominated the practice of our non-fiction group. Unlike most such groups, its members do not all read the same book or author. Instead, each reads and reports on whatever he or she is reading at the time. It be a book or, equally well, an article or pamphlet. Participants summarize their reading in ten minutes or so, before general discussion and questions. History, biography, science, and current politics are favorite topics. Only fiction is unacceptable. The group meets at 9:30 every other Thursday morning in the FUF lobby, unless public holidays clash. With presentations done, some members head for lunch and more talk at a local cafe.
